BIG BUSINESS

Is Transacted During Year at Branch of the Morgantown Postoffice.

MORGANTOWN, Jan. 11.—Cash business exceeding $11,000 was transacted at the Seneca stamp station of the Morgantown postoffice during the year 1912, according to a report just made by Joseph Kasper, in charge of the office, to Postmaster Frank L. Bowman. If the Seneca stamp station was a separate office, the business transacted during the year would place the office in the third class.

The largest business was in money orders, while the sale of stamps and stamped papers totalled $1,460.80.
